There follows additional details to the information previously reported in [REDACTED]. It will be noted that this later information names Durres as the port involved, and not Vlone as stated earlier.

1. Between 24 and 29 May, the KUBAN, a Soviet liberty ship of 10,000 tons capacity, unloaded about 3,000 tons of arms, munitions and some personnel at Durres.
2. The weapons were of the portable type including machine guns and small caliber cannon. The unloading took five days.
3. Five hundred tons of the materiel were stored in the naval barracks at Durres, and the remainder was taken to the interior by truck.
